Sir,

Subject: Harijan Day Celebrations during the years 1955 and 1956 - Bills of expenditure incurred for lunch - Audit objection

I write to state that in connection with the Harijan Day Celebrations held during the years 1955 and 1956, various sub-committees had been constituted for inspections of Harijan houses, Harijan Boys and Girls in the various Harijan localities in the city and prizes were awarded to the awardees as adjudged by the members The Harijan Day Celebration Committees had to meet in the Municipal offices on several occasions to deliberate on the various actions to be taken by them for the conduct of public meetings in the various Harijan areas The members has had to visit various villages included within the city limits to make propaganda in the Harijan colonies regarding sanitary habits etc As the deliberations continued for hours together, it was felt desirable to provide very light lunch on the occasions and a sum of Rs 9-7-6 was incurred during the year 1955 and 1956 as detailed in the margin* The Accountant-General, to whom the N D C Bills were sent has observed that the expenditure incurred on lunch etc , is inadmissible as per G O dated 13-3-1954 An extract of the audit objection is noted overleaf for favour of information of Government

The expenditure is very small considering the utility of enlisting the services of various members for such important works about which great emphasis is laid by the Central and State Governments

In these circumstances, I request that sanction of Government may kindly be obtained for having incurred a sum of Rs 9-7-6 in the aggregate in connection with the above and to give a general sanction for incurring such small expenditure in future

Yours faithfully,

Municipal Commissioner

Proceedings of the Government of Mysore

Correspondence ending with letter No DC 214/53-54 dated 22-2-1954 from the Commissioner for Depressed Classes in Mysore furnishing a note of theaction to be taken in connection with the observance of Harijan Day in the State once a year

Order No LB 14457-522/A D C 28-53-8, Dated, Bangalore, 13th March 1954

Depressed

The Central/Committee class Policy committee recommended to Government that in order to draw the attention of the public to the neef for sustained effort for the amelioration of the Depressed classes and to the need for the continued co-operation of all classes of the public to make this work a success, it is necessary to organise at as many places in the State as possible the observance of a Harijan Day Government agree that such a step will help in the promotion of the work that the Government and non official bodies are doing in this behalf The observance of the Harijan Day as a part of the scheme for the removal of untouchability has been approved by the Govemment of India, which will bear a half shareof the expenditure in this behalf Governmont therefore direct that one day in every year may be observed as Harijan Day in every village, town and city in the State The date may be fixed to suit local convenience. They also direct that the Heads of all departments of Governments may co-operate to make the observance a success and that action in this behalf may be taken in the following manner

(1) The day will be declared a holiday for all educational institutions in the locality to enable teachers and students to participate in the function

(2) The Deputy commissioners will form District Harijan Day Celebration Committees consisting of prominent Harijan leaders of the District and other public spirited men of the District, about 20 in number The local Harijan Sevak Sangha, Boy Scouts, Bharat Seva Sangha Sevadals and other social service organisations may be given adequate representation on the committee The Sub Division officers and the Dist Education officer may also be members There may be about seven harijans on the committee and Harijan ladies where available should be included. The Deputy Commissioners will be the chairman of the Dist committees

(3) The Taluk Committees and Village committees should also be formed on the analogy of the District committee At the village level an influentail committee consisting of Harijans and Caste Hindus with the village panchayet chairman and the Patel may be formed to implement the programme The Special officers for Dep Classes in eac district and the Spl R Inspectors will undertake all thesecretarial work in connection with these committees No travelling allowance will be allowed to any member of the committee

(4) The Dist committee will draw up the general programme for the Day and the Local Committees will arrange the celebration in a fitting manner enlisting the full sympathy and co-operation of Caste Hindus of all classes

5 The following is an outline of the programme which may may be followed on the celebration Day

a) Processions may be organised in the morning with the co-operation of the scouts, sevadals and other organisations of all places, in which Harijans and members of all other community and officials may take part A portrait of photo of Mahatma Gandhi might be carried in the procession and bhajanas organised

b) Poor feeding may be organised wherever possible with the help of local collections

c) There may be a public meeting in the afternoon or a procession in the morning and public meeting in the afternoon are both not possible the procession itself may lead to the place of the meeting and end with the meeting Speeches might be delivered by suitable people exhorting people to give up the evil practice of untouchability and explaining the national importance of ameliorating the social and economic conditions of the harijans The provisions of the Indian Constitution, of the Mysore Removal of Civil Disabilities Acts and the Temple Entry Act might be explained The work done by the Government, leading public men of the country - past and present - and non-official bodies, for Harijan Welfare may be explained Educative and instructive pamphlets, attractive brochures, folders and placards and suggestive posters on the subject may be got printed and distributed on the occasion by the department for the Amelioration of Depressed classes The services of Lavanikars and Gamakis may be enlisted and arrangements made to recite and sing suitable and appropriate lavanies, poems and songs Folk Arts and dances and community singing may also be organised The non-harijans and community singing may also be organised The non-Harijans should be induced to actively participate in these functions Charka spinning demonstrations should form an important feature of the programme at each place

d) The necessity for discipline, organisation and co-operation for mutual benefit among Harijans themselves may be stressed

e) Worship should be arranged in all public temple and the Harijans allowed to exercise their free right of workship

f) The teachers and students of all communities in the educational institutions should be encouraged to partake in the observance of the day and do propaganda for the removal of the practice of untouchability.

g) Arrangements may be made to clean up Harijans quarters and propaganda also undertaken to spread clean and sanitary habits such as bathing and wearing clean clothes etc , among Harijans Women workers will have to be induced to take up such propaganda among Harijans women.

h) Sports for the Harijans children may be arranged instituting small prizes to the winners Prizes may also be awarded for the cleanliest and tidiest houses of harijans.

i) Tea parties or cosmopolitan dinners may be arranged in which persons of all communities may take part This should be strictly on a voluntary and subscription basis

j) Film shows in Harijan localities may be arranged as part of the programme wherever possible

A sum of Rs 1,000/- is placed at the disposal of the Deputy Commissioner of each district as a discretionary grant. The Deputy Commissioners will allot a reasonable amount out of this grant to the Dist and Taluk Committees to supplement the funds they collect by local subscriptions The collection should be made only under the responsibility of Local committees and receipts should be issued and proper and complete accounts maintained The accounts should be published for general information though they need not always be printed The expenditure on this account will be debitable to the provision under 40-Rural Devl 6 schemes for the uplift of scheduled castes and scheduled tribes

Govt direct that the officers and officials of all Depts should co-operate in the celebration of the Harijan Day to make it a success
